Dear Sir/Madam

Dargavel Village

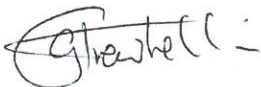

We are contacting you on behalf of BAE Systems. It is the intention of BAE Systems to submit an application to Renfrewshire Council to vary conditions attached to the planning permission for Dargavel Village. The conditions relate to the time for opening the new M8 junction and works to the St James Interchange. As part of the process of applying to vary planning conditions, BAE Systems is required to notify the owners of properties on the site. In order for this to take place, we respectfully request you provide the name of the owner of your property on or before 17 January 2017, this can be provided by e mail or by post to: all@cassassociates.co.uk

Cass Associates

If you do not wish to provide the name of the property owner, there is no obligation to do so. In these circumstances, Renfrewshire Council will advertise the application in the local press and there will be an opportunity to comment on the application in due course.

Thank you for your assistance in anticipation of your response.

Yours faithfully
For Cass Associates
